YOUR OWN PERSONAL SHIPPING DEPARTMENT

Desktop shipping is essential for organizations that rely on quick delivery of critical items, including financial documents, evaluation products, lab samples and dealer/distributor material. Unfortunately commercial fulfillment systems aren't equipped to deal with the small but steady flow of shipments from hundreds – even thousands – of individual users. Worse yet, carrier-supplied solutions trap users in a single-source environment with zero control and little opportunity for savings.

AgileOffice solves this problem with an easy-to-use, cloud-based solution that extends throughout the enterprise to deliver money saving options from hundreds of domestic and international carriers, including FedEx, UPS, DHL, USPS and TNT. It also scales to support satellite offices and third parties, including those which rely on local couriers and internal services to keep packages moving.

Designed to operate without a scale or label printer, AgileOffice provides 'shipment request form' functionality to handle individual packages and automatically consolidated pouch mail shipments. A quick-to-configure rules engine and complete management dashboard work to ensure shipments always arrive on time and budget.
